

Clinical Laboratory/PEP Prep
Chicago IL
Offered by the
Fairleigh Dickinson University
Postdoctoral M.S. Program in Clinical Psychopharmacology

Course Description

The Clinical Laboratory is a five-day intensive clinical experience intended to prepare the participant for subsequent learning in the clinical domains of physical examination, health history-taking, neurological examination, and interpretation of laboratory tests. Basic familiarity with these competencies represents the foundation needed for effective practice in medication decision-making.

The Clinical Laboratory is scheduled for 9AM-5PM beginning Monday August 20, 2012, and ending Friday August 24, 2012. The Clinical Laboratory is being taught by Monica Ryan, DNP, APRN, FNP-BC, an Associate Professor of Nursing at Saint Xavier University in Chicago. She will be joined for the final day, which focuses on interpretation of laboratory findings, by Marlin Hoover, Ph.D., M.S.C.P., ABPP, ABMP. Participants will be evaluated on a series of rubrics and quizzes during the course of instruction. This feedback is intended to prove helpful to you in planning your future clinical experiences. Participants will receive 32.5 hours of APA-approved continuing education credit.

The PEP Prep is a two-day didactic experience intended to prepare the participant to take the Psychopharmacology Examination for Psychologists. For students of the Fairleigh Dickinson Program, it also represents effective preparation for the qualifying examination required for completion of the master's degree.

The PEP Prep is scheduled 8AM-5PM Saturday August 25, 2012 and 8AM-4PM Sunday August 26, 2012. The PEP Prep is being taught by Marlin Hoover, Ph.D., M.S.C.P., ABPP, ABMP, a member of the Behavioral Science Faculty in the Southern New Mexico Family Medicine Residency Program in Las Cruces NM. Participants will receive 14 hours of APA-approved continuing education credit.

Fairleigh Dickinson University School of Psychology is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. Fairleigh Dickinson University School of Psychology maintains responsibility for this program and its contents.
